

ECO - INFORMATION CENTRE KRKA

If you are saturated with the city and looking for a change, if you love the natural environment and traditional culture attached to you, even if you're not, but want to try it, come and see the natural and cultural values of the town of Knin and its surroundings.

Probably you still have a few thoughts in mind, so visit Eco-information center on the Krka and relive it.

In Eco-information center you can:

- Taste the charms of Krka floating on a raft "King Zvonimir"
- Rent a kayak or canoe
- Rent a bike
- See the exhibition of souvenirs, photographs, artifacts etc.
- Spend a fun and educational day as part of the Green excursions (children) or team building events
- Buy products of association members (recycled objects, cloth bags, bags made from plastic bags on the loom, "Škatula verde" - packages of herbs...)

You can enjoy the delights of Knin beautiful river Krka through the half-hour sail on a raft „King Zvonimir“ from which the view extends to the highest Croatian peak (Dinara, Sinjal, 1831m), on the one side, and the Knin fortress on the other side.

Sailing is organized through social enterprise „Marunuša j.d.o.o.“ founded by the association "Krka".

Green excursions

Green excursions are tours that educate students in nature, about nature and its ecosystems and meet the with students the principles of environmentally responsible behavior and encourage them to practice them in daily life.

Green excursions are designed and adapted for students of all grades of primary school, they are organized for one or two classes and they are designed to fit in the curriculum for primary schools.

Green excursions are carried out in an attractive, usually protected natural locations that best represent individual ecosystems.

Path Krčić

We suggest you to visit the newly opened instructive-educational path Krčić. The route is 10.5 kilometers long, stretches of the river canyon Krčić along with the old "Napoleon road". The starting point is above the waterfall "Topoljski buk" and extends up to the source of the river Krčić, which provides a beautiful view of the Dinara.

This resort is perfect for hiking and biking, or simply to enjoy in the beautiful protected landscape.
